COMPANY'S PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. ACCEPTANCE -- Company's Purchase Order is an offer to buy goods and/or services (collectively referred to as "Goods") according to the description and other provisions set forth on the front and reverse sides hereof and in accordance with the terms of any supply agreement entered into by the parties ("Agreement"). The Purchase Order and the Agreement shall collectively be referred to as "Purchase Order." This Purchase Order shall be deemed to have been accepted by Supplier by acknowledging receipt of this Purchase Order or other commencement of work by Supplier in connection with this Purchase Order. No additional or different terms offered by the Supplier shall be or become a part hereof, nor shall the Purchase Order be modified, without the express written approval of Company. In the event of a conflict between an Agreement between you and us and these Terms and Conditions, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail unless a signed agreement between us and you states otherwise. The performance of any Purchase Order shall not be governed by the terms and conditions of any Supplier proposal, quotation, order acknowledgment, order acceptance, invoice, shipping order, bill of lading or other document furnished by Supplier at any time, and the acceptance by Company of any Goods furnished pursuant to this Purchase Order which is accompanied by any such Supplier document shall not be construed as an acceptance by Company of any terms or conditions contained in such document which are inconsistent with or in addition to the terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Order, even in the face of terms to the contrary in such Purchase Order. By acceptance of a Purchase Order, Supplier agrees that it has inspected and approved all plans, drawings and specifications applicable to the Goods, including all general and special conditions appertaining thereto.

2. TAX -- Supplier agrees to withhold and to pay to the proper governmental authorities Social Security taxes and Unemployment Compensation taxes in any and all jurisdictions as may be required by law, and to hold Company harmless against any claims for non-payment or insufficient payment of same. Supplier will be solely responsible to obtain any required permits for the performance of its undertaking under the Purchase Order. Any license fees, excise taxes, use taxes or other assessments applicable to Supplier's undertaking or imposed upon either Supplier or Company by reason thereof are deemed to be included in the price and shall be payable by Supplier. In the event Company is assessed the amount of any such tax which Supplier has failed to pay, Supplier agrees to indemnify Company against all loss and expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection therewith. Should Company wish to contest the legal validity and/or applicability of any tax which is or has been imposed upon the manufacture, sale, delivery, consumption or use of any of the Goods furnished hereunder, Supplier agrees to permit the use of its name in any legal proceedings contesting the same, at no expense to Supplier. Any refund of any tax of which Company bears the ultimate burden of payment, whether received by Supplier or Company, shall be the property of Company whether or not Company has contested the payment of the refunded tax.

3. SHIPPING -- Packing slips must accompany each shipment. All Goods are to be suitably packed or otherwise prepared for shipment so as to secure the lowest transportation and insurance rates and to meet carrier requirements. No charges will be allowed for drayage, boxing or packing unless specifically stated in the applicable Purchase Order. Goods must be shipped as provided for in this Purchase Order, or additional shipping and handling costs will be back charged to Supplier. In the absence of such instructions, shipments shall be routed via the most economical mode of commercially reasonable transportation available consistent with the time requirements established for the order. Company will not be liable for any charges for packing, cartage, including any tax, crating, or storage, in excess of the purchase price of this Purchase Order unless otherwise stated herein. Unless otherwise stated on the face of this Purchase Order or in the Agreement, for domestic shipments delivery shall be F.O.B. destination, and for international shipments delivery shall be DAP (Incoterms® 2020) Company's designated location.

4. RISK OF LOSS; TITLE TO GOODS -- All risk of loss shall be upon Supplier from the time the Goods first come under Supplier's control until such time as the Goods shall be delivered to the destination specified in this Purchase Order and there accepted by Company, without regard to the F.O.B. point. Supplier agrees to indemnify and hold Company harmless against any and all loss, cost, damage and expense which Company shall sustain as a result or in consequence of the loss of or damage to the Goods during such period of time. Title to Goods shall pass to Company upon delivery at the F.O.B. point.

5. QUANTITIES, SPECIFICATIONS AND QUALITY -- Supplier shall not deliver, and Company shall not have any obligation or liability with respect to, any quantity of any Goods in excess of the quantity specified in a Purchase Order or in excess of the maximum quantity specified unless Company shall deliver to Supplier written authorization for the excess quantity. Company's count will be accepted as final and conclusive on all shipments. Company reserves the right to cancel all or any portion of a Purchase Order if not filled as specified. Supplier shall not furnish or deliver to any person other than Company or a person designated in writing by Company any Goods which shall be produced according to Company's design or specification or developed for Company at Company's direction or any designs supplied by Company or copies thereof.

Supplier will notify Company within three (3) business days of any prescheduled or unscheduled FDA inspections of any Supplier facility where the Goods are manufactured or citations relating to the Goods (e.g. federal, state or municipal). When the validity of a request about the Goods by a regulatory agency is in question, Supplier will contact Company for instructions.

Supplier shall notify Company within twenty-four (24) hours of Supplier receipt of a Form 482 Notice of Inspection by FDA of a Supplier facility where Goods are manufactured. Supplier shall notify Company within three (3) business days of when Supplier receives notice of any issues found during a FDA inspection of a Supplier facility at which any Goods are manufactured.

In the event of an FDA inspection of any Company facility related to Goods manufactured by Supplier, Supplier will provide Company with appropriate documentation responsive to FDA's inquiries regarding manufacturing processes within a reasonable period of time.

Supplier shall provide Company with copies of any FDA 483 reports, warning letters or EIR (Establishment Inspection Reports) that relate to any Goods or to the Supplier facility where Goods are manufactured.

Supplier shall allow Company and any Company customer access to Supplier's and subcontractor's and component and ingredient manufacturer's facilities where Goods are manufactured and/or stored for quality inspection and audit and qualifications purposes at least annually. These audits may be conducted with reasonable notice to verify compliance with the terms of this agreement, including but not limited to, quality control, ethical sourcing, and legal obligations. The Supplier agrees to provide full cooperation during such audits and to promptly address any identified issues. In the event any audit, inspection, regulatory inquiry, or quality review identifies non-compliance with this Purchase Order or applicable law, Supplier shall promptly develop and implement a corrective action plan acceptable to Company. Company may suspend new Purchase Orders or shipments until corrective actions have been completed to Company's satisfaction. Any chargebacks arising from any such audit or inspection of Supplier's facilities shall be paid by Supplier.

Supplier shall notify Company as soon as practicable after public announcement of any recall by Supplier of other products manufactured at the facility where Goods are manufactured. In addition, Supplier will notify Company prior to public announcement, if practicable taking into account all confidentiality and regulatory issues, for any recalls relating to products made on the same line(s) as the Goods and for recalls of products manufactured by Supplier that are similar to the Goods and could reasonably have a direct or indirect impact on any Goods. In the event of a product recall, the Supplier shall bear all costs associated with the recall. The Supplier also agrees to maintain comprehensive records of all products supplied and to assist the Buyer in tracing any defective products.

6. DELAY -- Delay in receiving invoices and errors and omissions on statements or invoices will be considered just cause for withholding settlement without losing discount privileges. If deliveries are behind schedules specified in a Purchase Order and Company determines that it is necessary, in its sole and reasonable discretion, to request Supplier to make shipments by other means, Supplier agrees that it will pay any resulting increase in transportation cost.

7. CONTINUITY -- Supplier shall maintain adequate business continuity, disaster recovery, and contingency plans designed to ensure uninterrupted supply of Goods. Supplier shall immediately notify Company, and in no event later than forty-eight (48) hours after becoming aware, of any actual or reasonably anticipated event that may delay, interrupt, allocate, or otherwise impair Supplier's ability to perform, including labor issues, raw material shortages, equipment failures, regulatory actions, cyber incidents, or force majeure events. Supplier shall take all commercially reasonable steps to mitigate any adverse impact on Company.

8. WAIVER -- Failure of Company to insist on performance of any of the Terms and Conditions or requirements of this Purchase Order shall not be construed as a waiver of such terms, conditions, or requirements, and shall not affect the right of Company thereafter to enforce each and every term, condition, or requirement.

9. PAYMENT TERMS AND PRICE REDUCTIONS -- Payment terms shall be net 75 days from receipt of proper invoice unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Supplier agrees that Company shall receive the benefit of any reduction in price for any Goods described herein which shall be made or in effect at the time of shipment or delivery or furnishing thereof to Company and that in any such case the price therefor provided in any Purchase Order shall be reduced accordingly.

10. WARRANTY -- Company will receive good title to all Goods furnished hereunder, free and clear of all liens. Supplier warrants and represents, both as of the date of delivery to Company and at the time of use by Company's customers, that all Goods furnished by Supplier hereunder are free of all defects, safe for their intended use, and fulfill and conform to the specifications required for the applicable Purchase Order. Supplier expressly warrants and represents that all Goods covered by this order conform to each and every specification, drawing, sample, or other description which has been furnished to Supplier. Company's acceptance of Goods containing latent defects or otherwise failing to conform to this warranty shall not constitute a waiver of Company's rights under this warranty, and Supplier's warranty shall extend to the time of discovery of such defects or failure to conform notwithstanding any prior inspection by Company. SUPPLIER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT COMPANY'S CUSTOMERS REQUIRE THAT COMPANY MANAGE THE QUALITY OF GOODS THROUGHOUT THE SUPPLY CHAIN. THEREFORE, SUPPLIER AGREES THAT THERE WILL BE NO SUBSTITUTION OF MATERIALS USED IN THE MANUFACTURING OF GOODS OR CHANGE OF MANUFACTURING LOCATION OR PROCESS WITHOUT COMPANY'S PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT IN EACH INSTANCE.

Supplier further warrants and represents that all Goods delivered pursuant to this Purchase Order, were processed, manufactured, represented, described, packaged, labeled, advertised, sold, invoiced and shipped in full compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations and orders, including executive orders, now existing or hereafter enacted, adopted or enforced by any government body or agency, including but not limited to, all provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, all food and drug acts and regulations, including, without limitation, The Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act, Current Good Manufacturing Practices, as from time to time provided in the Code of Federal Regulations, the Federal Trade Commission Trade Practices Rules, the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act, the Missouri Merchandising Practices Act, and Section 202 of Executive Order 11246. Supplier covenants by acceptance of any Purchase Order that it will comply with such laws, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations and orders, including executive orders and amendments thereto to the extent the same are applicable to the manufacture and/or sale of the Goods purchased hereunder. In addition, the parties hereby incorporate the requirements of 41 CFR 60-1.4(a), 41 CFR 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a), as applicable: Supplier shall and shall cause any subcontractors to abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals on the basis of protected veteran status or disability, and require affirmative action by covered prime contractors and subcontractors to employ and advance in employment qualified protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.

The Supplier warrants that it will comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws and regulations. It guarantees the secure processing of any personal or sensitive data, ensuring its confidentiality and integrity, and will immediately notify the Buyer of any data breaches or security incidents, cooperating fully in their resolution.

All warranties of Supplier shall survive inspection by Company, quality tests, acceptance of Goods by Company, and payment for the Goods and shall run to and inure the benefit of Company, its successors and assigns. No action of Company shall be deemed to constitute any waiver of these warranties, or any warranties implied by law. The warranties of Supplier, together with its guarantees, shall be enforceable not only by Company but also by its assigns and each successive customer. In addition, Supplier assigns to Company the benefit of any warranty that Supplier receives from its suppliers of any Goods purchased by Company hereunder.

11. DEFECTIVE GOODS – No Goods received by Company pursuant to any Purchase Order shall be deemed accepted until Company has had reasonable opportunity to inspect said Goods. At Company's request, Supplier shall immediately submit, at Supplier's expense, samples of the Goods ordered pursuant to any Purchase Order for testing or examination at laboratories selected or approved by Company. Company's right to require such testing shall be in addition to any other rights of Company to inspect and examine such Goods. The acceptance by Company of any Goods tested or examined (or the failure of Company to require the submission of Goods for testing or examination) shall not be deemed a waiver of any specification, warranty or guaranty expressed herein or implied by law. Anything which is discovered to be defective or which does not conform to any warranty of Supplier herein upon initial inspection or at any later time, if the defects contained therein were not reasonably ascertainable upon the initial inspection, may be returned at Supplier's expense for full credit or replacement. No Goods shall be replaced without Company's written authorization. Such return shall in no way affect Company's discount privileges. The remedy afforded to Company arising from its receipt of defective Goods under this section shall not exclude any other legal, equitable or contractual remedies Company may have therefor, including without limitation, Supplier agrees that Company shall have the right to set off against amounts which may become payable by Company to Supplier under contract or otherwise, any present or future indebtedness of Supplier to Company, whether arising under this Purchase Order or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Company shall have the right to cancel any unshipped portion of the Goods ordered under any Purchase Order or, in Company's sole discretion, Company may (but shall not be obligated to) repair any defects and charge Supplier's account for the cost of such repairs, when, in the sole judgment of Company, the costs of making such repairs would be less than the cost of Supplier's replacement thereof or Company's cancellation of its Purchase Order. If it becomes evident to Company that Supplier is not conducting any work required to deliver the Goods hereunder in accordance with the specifications or with diligence so as to permit delivery on or before the specified delivery date, and does not cure such failure within a period of ten (10) days (or such longer period as Company may authorize in writing) after receipt of notice specifying such failure, Company may terminate its Purchase Order in whole or in part.

12. Except as provided herein, Supplier does not need to give any notice to, make any filing with, or obtain any authorization, consent, or approval of any government or governmental agency in order for the parties to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Purchase Order.

24. FOREIGN CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT -- Supplier has not taken and will not take in the future in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby any action that would be illegal under United States' law, including, but not limited to, directly or indirectly paying, offering, giving or promising to pay or give, or authorizing the payment or gift of, any portion of the compensation or reimbursements received from Company hereunder or any other monies or other thing of value to (a) an official or employee of any government, (b) an official or employee of any agency or instrumentality of any government, (c) a candidate for political office, (d) a political party or party official in any non-U.S. territory or country or (e) any other person, individual or entity at the suggestion, request or direction or for the benefit of any of the persons described in clauses (a) through (d) above, for the purpose of (1) influencing any act or decision of any of the above persons in their or its official capacity, including a decision to fail to perform his or its official function, or (2) inducing any of the persons specified above to use his or its influence to affect or induce any act or decision of such government or instrumentality, in order to assist Supplier or Company in obtaining or retaining business or to engage in acts or transactions otherwise in violation of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of the United States of America of 1977, as amended from time to time.

Nothing in this clause shall limit the right of any party to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for specific performance or other injunctive relief. Such application to a court shall not constitute a waiver of the agreement to arbitrate claims for other relief under this clause. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the parties agree to waive any right to apply or appeal to any court to contest the enforceability of this clause, to contest the arbitrability of any dispute, controversy or claim or to set aside any interim or final award. All information, data and documentation disclosed or delivered by a party to another party or the arbitrator in consequence of or in connection with arbitration hereunder shall remain the property of the party who originally disclosed or delivered the same (the "Producing Party") and shall be treated as confidential by the recipient. Except as required for enforcement of an award or as otherwise ordered by a court or government agency, such information, data and documentation shall not be disclosed by the recipient to any other person or entity, and all originals and copies thereof shall be returned directly to the Producing Party within ninety (90) calendar days after the Producing Party has fully satisfied its obligations, if any, under all awards in the arbitration. In the event a court of competent jurisdiction determines that all or any part of this Purchase Order is invalid or unenforceable for any reason, this clause shall not be affected thereby and shall be given full effect without regard to the invalidity or unenforceability of the remainder of this Purchase Order. This Section shall survive any termination of this Purchase Order.
